DIDACTICS

Our courses are based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages from level A1 (Beginner) to level C2 (Mastery).

- Our training programmes comprise:
- practising conversation of everyday social and work situations
- listening
- oral presentations
- reading comprehension of written texts
- written presentations
- theory
- grammar exercises

All the above activities are conducted by our Italian teachers, who are qualified to teach Italian as a second language as they hold the officially recognised certificates (CEDILS or DITALS), which ensure that classes are taught at the highest quality.

Specific courses are planned to prepare The PLIDA exams.

CERTIFICATIONS

PLIDA

As we are a PLIDA Certification Centre, our students can take directly at our school this language certification issued by Società Dante Alighieri at the end of their course.

With PLIDA Certificate (Progetto Lingua Italiana Dante Alighieri) you can:

- clearly specify your level of knowledge of the Italian language on your CV
- enrol in an Italian university without having to sit the Italian exam (level B2 or C1)
- Attain the long-term residence permit

Contact us to enrol for PLIDA exam at our school!
